

Statement of Purpose

Accountability should present an accurate reflection of our efforts to prepare Georgia students for their futures. Instead, educational policy has focused on flawed solutions as better than nothing, which our communities are now rejecting. A window of opportunity exists to create a true accountability based on all our students' hopes and dreams for their future, and what each student will need to achieve them. For the sake of our students, Georgia must take full advantage of this opportunity.